43/19 Jubilee Field

Cllr. Morris has spoken with Dorricot Construction Ltd and asked them for an update on their original estimate, considering the extended time since their original estimate.

Cllr. Cooling has applied for grant funding for the patio for the village hall from Calor.

44/19 Community-Led Planning Update

The CLP steering group has reviewed the first draft of the Parish Plan. There is a second review in April with the aim of publishing the final plan in June

45/19 Councillor Reports:

Cllr. Cooling reported that the Chairman of the Village Hall Committee will be retiring so there is a need for a new chairman and committee members.

46/19 Parish Matters:

- a. The nomination of the Leaking Tap as an Asset of Community Value was accepted and listed on 4th March 2019. <https://shropshire.gov.uk/media/12142/190305-cr2b-published-list.pdf>
Subject to any appeal, the property will remain listed for 5 years to 4th March 2024.
- b. A complaint was received regarding smoke pollution from burning hedge cuttings and flooding adjacent to the development site. Cllr. Cooling has been in touch with the highways dept. who will be sending a jetter to clear the drains. There appears to be an issue with a pond on the field which drains, or did drain, into a culvert; the culvert is blocked.
- c. The fly tipping at Church Green is on the verge not the Parish Council's land. The matter has been reported to the environment team at Shropshire Council.
- d. Vehicles are parked on the green at Church Green. As this related to Meres and Mosses land the matter will be reported to them.

47/19 Highways:

a. The Meadows

There is still no response from the developer regarding the issues raised and adoption of the road. PC to contact Wrekin Housing Group who own some of the properties on the development.

b. Willowbrook Manor

Cllr. Morris is still awaiting a response regarding the speed limit area from Shropshire Council

c. VAS northern

It will be 6-8 weeks before the posts are installed for the signs.

d. Installation of Road Signs

Deferred

e. New Requests under SC Road Safety Policy

None
