

Accessibility Statement for Cockshutt-cum-Petton Parish Council

This accessibility statement applies to the website: <https://www.cockshuttcupetton-pc.gov.uk/>

This website is run by Cockshutt-cum-Petton Parish Council. We want as many people as possible to be able to use this website.

How you should be able to use this website

We aim for users to be able to:

- change colours, contrast levels and fonts
- zoom in up to 200% without the text spilling off the screen
- navigate most of the website using a keyboard
- navigate most of the website using speech recognition software
- listen to most of the website using a screen reader

We have also tried to make the website text as simple as possible to understand.

How accessible this website is

We know some parts of this website are not fully accessible:

- some older PDF documents (such as meeting minutes and audit documents) may not be fully accessible to screen readers
- some scanned documents (e.g. signed notices or reports) cannot be made fully accessible
- some third-party content or external links may not meet accessibility standards
- some documents published before 23 September 2018 may not be fully accessible

We are working to improve accessibility where possible.

Feedback and contact information

If you need information on this website in a different format, such as:

- accessible PDF
- large print
- easy read
- audio recording

please contact the Parish Clerk:

Email: clerk@cockshuttcupetton-pc.gov.uk

Telephone: 01948 663281

We will consider your request and aim to respond within 10–15 working days.

Reporting accessibility problems

We are always looking to improve the accessibility of this website.

If you find any problems not listed on this page, or think we are not meeting accessibility requirements, please contact the Parish Clerk using the details above.

Enforcement procedure

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

If you are not satisfied with our response to your complaint, you can contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS).

Technical information about this website's accessibility

Cockshutt-cum-Petton Parish Council is committed to making its website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

Compliance status

This website is partially compliant with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) due to the non-compliances listed above.

Disproportionate burden

We are not currently claiming disproportionate burden for any accessibility issues.

Content not within the scope of the regulations

- PDFs and Word documents published before 23 September 2018, unless essential
- third-party content not funded or developed by the Parish Council

What we are doing to improve accessibility

- reviewing and updating website content regularly (the site is updated at least every 3 months)
- ensuring new documents are accessible where possible
- replacing or remediating older documents when they are updated
